Starting from 2021, the Novoarkhangelsk territorial community began an active study of the history of the Battle of the Blue Waters, which probably took place on the territory of our community in 1362. In 2021, the first children's historical and cultural festival "Blue Waters Fest" was held, which was dedicated to this historical event and was accompanied by the reconstruction of the battle with the participation of the "Aina Bera" fighting club. We are in need for creative ideas of ideas for holding children's festivals on historical topics, as well as financial support for this event.
